

I would like to strongly encourage the Commission to not approve any changes that would or could possibly result in higher levels of interference to HF spectrum users. Using power lines as transmission media for HF signals is bound to cause disruption to many licensed services, both within and outside of the United States. I urge the Commission to reject any changes to Part 15 or other regulations that will result in increased interference.